MAYOR & TRUSTEE'S REPORT:

Mayor Dwyer reminded all residents to get out and vote in the upcoming Village election! With over 5,000 registered voters in our community, every voice matters. I encourage everyone to exercise their right to vote.

Location: Village Hall, 7 Stage Road, Monroe

Time: 6:00 AM – 9:00 PM

Date: March 18, 2026

Trustee Behringer is urging residents to slow down and stay alert on our roads.

She has concerns about drivers traveling at high speeds throughout the Village. Please drive carefully, stay aware, and keep our community safe.

Trustee Ferraro shared some updates with the community. Airplane Park is open and picket fence post are still available to be purchased.

Trustee Karl announced a special event for Veterans: a free showing of Hail Mary on March 24, 2026, at Flagship Cinemas, with two showtimes at 1:00 PM and 6:00 PM. Each Veteran may bring one guest, and popcorn and soda will be provided. Please RSVP by calling 845-291-2470 to reserve your spot.

Trustee Karl inquired about the double poles and whether there have been any updates. He requested that another letter be sent regarding the double poles, along with a copy of the village code.

He also discussed the deterioration of Horseshoe Falls in the Town of Monroe, expressing concern that temporary fencing should be installed to ensure public safety.

Additionally, he extended his best wishes to all candidates in the upcoming village election.
